

witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of said court; and the justice before whom the case is tried shall inform the person charged, of his right to a jury trial.

1882, ch. 307. 1882, ch. 244.

200. State's attorneys and justices of the peace having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the provisions of this sub-title of this article, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments, shall allege such previous conviction therein; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to furnish such information to the State's attorney and grand jury; and it shall not be necessary to set forth particularly in any such presentment or indictment the record of a former conviction, but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly that said person, corporation, company or association, had been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article; and any such indictment or proceeding may be amended at any stage of the proceedings before final judgment, and as a matter of right.

LIVE STOCK.

1880, ch. 398.

201. All horses, mules, cattle, sheep, geese or swine are prohibited from going at large on any public road or public ground, within school districts number six and number eleven of election district number one of Queen Anne's county.

1880, ch. 217.

202. All horses, mules, cattle, sheep and swine are prohibited from going at large on any public road or public ground within the limits of school district number four (Church Hill) of election district number two of Queen Anne's county.

1878, ch. 388. 1880, ch. 217.

203. The owner of any and every horse or mule, of each head of cattle, sheep and swine found trespassing under the preceding sections, shall be made to pay a fine for each offence per head: for horses and mules and cattle, fifty cents; for sheep and hogs,